WHAT THIS CASE IS ABOUT

The plaintiffs in this case were detainees who entered the Cook County Jail from August 3, 2005 through August 31, 2013. The defendants are the Sheriff of Cook County and Cook County, Illinois. The action is pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and alleges violations of rights secured by the United States Constitution. The Court ordered that the case may proceed as a class action on October 24, 2008.

THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

With the assistance of the Court, the lawyers for the parties have agreed to a settlement of all claims in this case. Defendants have agreed to establish a settlement fund in the amount of $7,500,000 (seven million five hundred thousand dollars) to cover damages for class members, incentive awards, fees and costs of counsel, and administration of this settlement. A total of $3,965,000 (three million nine hundred sixty-five thousand) is available to pay class members.

If the Court approves the proposed settlement, member of the class who entered the Jail before January 1, 2011 will, in the view of class counsel, likely receive an award of $200; class members who entered the Jail on and after January 1, 2011 will likely receive an award of $100. The actual size of the awards will be computed by assigning two points to each class member who entered the Jail before January 1, 2011 and one point for each class member who entered the Jail on and after January 1, 2011 through August 30, 2013.
