PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ONE BUSINESS DAY EXTENSION

Plaintiff William Carter, by counsel and without opposition, respectfully requests that the Court extend the summary judgment schedule by a single business day and order that plaintiff's responses be filed by January 13, 2025 and that defendants' replies be filed by February 10, 2025. Grounds for this motion are as follows:

1. Defendants filed lengthy summary judgment motions and related filings on December 13, 2024.
2. Defendant City of Chicago's filings were made under seal, and the City required until the late afternoon of December 16, 2024 to transmit the under seal filings to plaintiff's counsel.
3. Plaintiff's responses are currently due on January 10, 2025, and defendants' replies are due on February 7, 2025. (ECF No. 183.)

4. Plaintiff seeks one additional business day to file his response because of the one-business-day delay in receiving the under-seal filings and because of other professional obligations, including taking the deposition of defendant Mohammed in this case on January 7, 2025, and defending the deposition of the plaintiff in Mendoza v. Chicago, 23-cv-2441 on January 10, 2025. Both depositions are proceeding pursuant to Court order. (ECF No. 208 in 17-cv-7241; ECF No. 95 in 23-cv-2441)

5. Defendants do not oppose this motion.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court should extend the summary judgment schedule by a single business day and order that plaintiff's responses be filed by January 13, 2025 and that defendants' replies be filed by February 10, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,
