DOCKETING STATEMENT

The original plaintiff, Khalid Ali, invoked the jurisdiction of the district court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1343 to assert a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

On January 29, 2020, the district court concluded that plaintiff Ali could not seek certification of the case as a class action because he had not provided defendant City of Chicago with advance notice of his intent to sue as a class representative. (ECF No. 59.) Plaintiff Ali sought interlocutory review, but the Court of Appeals denied Ali's Rule 23(f) petition for permission to appeal on February 12, 2020, 7th Cir. Case No. 20-8002.

Plaintiff Ali filed a motion for leave to file an amended complaint on February 12, 2020. (ECF No. 62.) Ali provided notice in his proposed amended complaint (ECF No. 62-1) that he was bringing the case individually and for a putative class. (Proposed Amended Complaint, ¶ 39, ECF No. 62-1 at 3-4). The district court denied Ali leave to amend on November 30, 2020 as part of its ruling on the motion for summary judgment of the individual defendants. (ECF No. 103.)

Plaintiff Ali settled his claim and signed a written settlement agreement on January 20, 2021. The settlement agreement does not permit Ali to appeal the order denying class certification. The parties filed a stipulation to dismiss on January 25, 2021 (ECF No. 108), and the district court entered an order of dismissal on January 25, 2021. (ECF No. 109.)

Petitioner Glenn Miller, a member of the class plaintiff Ali sought to represent in this case, filed his petition to intervene on January 25, 2021. (ECF No. 110.) Petitioner called the district court's attention to CE Design, Ltd. v. Cy's Crab House North, Inc., 731 F.3d 725 (7th Cir. 2013), and requested the district court to rule on intervention within 30 days after entry of the order of dismissal. (ECF No. 110 at 5.) In the alternative, petitioner requested the district court to "enlarge the time for filing an appeal (up to 30 days), as permitted by FED. R. APP. P. 4(a)(5)." Id., quoting Roe v. Town of Highland, 909 F.2d 1097, 1099-100 (7th Cir. 1990).

The petition to intervene remains pending before the district court. On February 19, 2021, petitioner filed a motion to extend the time to appeal. (ECF No. 116.) That motion also remains undecided.

Petitioner filed his notice of appeal on February 24, 2021, the 30th day following entry of the final decision of January 25, 2021.

The Court has jurisdiction of this “springing appeal,” CE Design, Ltd. v. Cy's Crab House North, Inc., 731 F.3d 725, 730 (7th Cir. 2013), under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, as explained in Roe v. Town of Highland, 909 F.2d 1097, 1099-100 (7th Cir. 1990).

But the individual Defendants may file their motion for summary judgment as well. The overlap in issues (such as Plaintiff's adequacy to serve as a representative if his individual claims fail on the merits) will likely assist the Court in evaluating the certification motion and will serve judicial economy. | 01/29/2020 | 59 | MINUTE entry before the Honorable Edmond E. Chang:The City's unopposed motion 58 to file reply on the motion to strike certification motion is granted. The City shall file the reply on the docket as a separate entry to complete the record. On consideration of the motion 53 to strike, the motion is granted, and the motion 41 for class certification is stricken. On 12/05/2019, the Court set a briefing schedule on Plaintiff's motion 41 for class certification, which had been filed the previous day, 12/04/2019. The Court did not understand that no class allegation had been advanced in the case before the motion itself was filed; the Court mistakenly assumed that Plaintiff had done so before the filing of the certification motion. So the certification motion amounted to a request, at the end of fact discovery, to add a class-action claim to the case. Plaintiff cites Chapman v. First Index, Inc. 796 F.3d 783, 785 (7th Cir. 2015), for the proposition that class allegations need not be in a complaint in order to pursue a class action. But Chapman addressed a completely different issue: whether a particular class definition needs to appear in the complaint. Id. at 785 ("Class definitions are not on that list.") Of course the answer to that question is no; frequently, the proposed class definition is narrowed (and even sometimes expanded) as the parties engage in discovery over the propriety of certifying a class. But notice of some kind must be given to the defense that Plaintiff is pursuing a class action. How else is the defense supposed to consider what discovery to take over the propriety of certification? Whether it is in a complaint or given some other way, notice is required. Otherwise, an entry of a certification order under Rule 23(c) cannot possibly be entered, because the rule permits entry of the order only "after a person sues... as a class representative." Plaintiff had not, as of 12/04/2019, sued as a class representative. So the certification motion is stricken and the briefing schedule on it is vacated. If Plaintiff wishes to propose amending the Monell claim to add a class claim, then he must promptly file the motion and explain why leave should be granted. If leave is granted, then inevitably there will be a discovery period on the propriety of certification. Meanwhile the summary judgment briefing on the individual Defendants shall proceed as previously ordered. The status hearing of 01/31/2020 is vacated, and the status hearing of 04/22/2020 remains in place. Mailed notice (mw, ) (Entered: 01/29/2020) |
