AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendant Officers, without prejudice to their denials and all other statements in their answer and elsewhere, and without assuming the burden of proof as to matters that may not be affirmative defenses, state:

1. Defendant Officers are entitled to qualified immunity because it was not clearly established that the alleged conduct violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

2. Defendant Officers are absolutely immune for any testimony they may have given in plaintiff's underlying criminal case. See Briscoe v. LaHue, 460 U.S. 325 (1983).

3. Defendant Officers are not liable for the claims alleged under state law because a public employee is not liable for his or her acts or omissions in the execution or enforcement of any law unless such acts or omissions constitute willful and wanton conduct. 745 ILCS 10/2-202.

4. Under the Illinois Tort Immunity Act, Defendant Officers are not liable under state law for any injury caused by the act or omission of another person. 745 ILCS 10/2-204.

5. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutes of limitations.

6. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel.

7. To the extent any injuries or damages claimed by Plaintiff were proximately caused, in whole or in part, by negligent, willful, wanton and/or other wrongful conduct on the part of plaintiff (including criminal drug dealing by, and the guilty plea of, Plaintiff), any verdict or judgment obtained by Plaintiff must be reduced by an amount commensurate with the degree of fault attributed to Plaintiff by the jury in this case.

8. To the extent Plaintiff failed to mitigate any of his claimed injuries or damages, including by his voluntary guilty plea, any verdict or judgment obtained by Plaintiff must be reduced by application of the principle a Plaintiff has a duty to mitigate his or her damages.

9. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state cognizable claims for relief that are plausible on its face.

a. Plaintiff fails to state a fabricated evidence-based due process claim because the allegedly fabricated evidence was not introduced against him at trial and did not cause his conviction;

b. Even if otherwise actionable, Plaintiff's guilty plea defeats his fabricated evidence based-due process claim;

c. To the extent Plaintiff asserts Fourteenth Amendment due process claim based on any pre-trial deprivation of liberty or attempts a federal malicious prosecution claim, those claims are not actionable as a matter of law;

d. Any derivative failure to intervene or conspiracy claims are not actionable;

e. Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment claim for detention without probable cause is time-barred.
