- (c) To the extent Plaintiff alleges a Brady-based due process claim, such claim fails because his allegations establish that no evidence subject to Brady was suppressed;
- (d) To the extent Plaintiff asserts Fourteenth Amendment due process claims based on any pre-trial deprivation of liberty or attempts a federal malicious prosecution claim, those claims are not actionable as a matter of law;

- (e) To the extent Plaintiff alleges a failure to intervene, such a claim has no basis in the Constitution, and the “Supreme Court has held many times that § 1983 supports only direct, and not vicarious, liability.” Mwangangi v. Nielsen, 48 F.4th 816, 834-35 (7th Cir. 2022) (Easterbrook, J. concurring).
