PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO FILE DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL

Plaintiffs, by counsel and without opposition from defendants, respectfully seek leave of Court to file their response to Defendant City of Chicago's Rule 56.1 Statement and six exhibits under seal. Grounds for this motion are as follows:

1. Defendant City of Chicago was granted leave to file its Rule 56.1 Statement (ECF No. 122) under seal because the filing contained material produced pursuant to confidentiality orders. (ECF No. 126.)
2. The Court should grant plaintiffs leave to file their response to the Rule 56.1 Statement under seal because the response contains the same confidential material.
3. Pursuant to Local Rule 26.2, plaintiffs provisionally filed under seal their response to the Rule 56.1 Statement as ECF No. 141 and filed a redacted version as ECF No. 144.

4. Plaintiffs also rely on six exhibits to their summary judgment submissions that are subject to confidentiality orders.

5. Pursuant to Local Rule 26.2, plaintiffs' provisionally filed under seal the six exhibits as ECF No. 146 and ECF Nos. 148-1 through 148-5.

6. Defendants do not oppose this motion.

Accordingly, the Court should grant plaintiffs leave to file the following documents under seal: ECF No. 141, ECF No 146, and ECF Nos. 148-1 through 148-5.

Respectfully submitted,
