PLAINTIFFS' RENEWED MOTION TO CERTIFY CASE AS A CLASS ACTION

Pursuant to Rule 23(c), plaintiffs, by counsel, move the Court to order that this case proceed as a class action for:

All persons who, on and after February 27, 2018,

- (a) were detained by police officers of the City of Chicago on a warrant for which a judge had set an amount of cash bail,
- (b) were not permitted to post bail at the police station pursuant to the explicit policies set out in Section IV.B.3(a) or IV.B.3(c) of Chicago Police Department Special Order S06-12-02, and
- (c) were released by posting bail after an appearance before a judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County without being held at the Cook County Jail.

I. Facts

A. Background Facts

At about 3:15 a.m. on Saturday, September 29, 2018, Chicago police officers Bahena and Diaz stopped plaintiff Anthony Murdock while he was driving a motor vehicle with one functioning headlight. Murdock's girlfriend Tishay Richardson was also in the car. Murdock produced his valid Illinois driver's license and the officers detained plaintiff while they checked for outstanding warrants. Murdock does not challenge his detention while the officers conducted this "name check." Hall v. City of Chicago, 953 F.3d 945, 948 (7th Cir. 2020) (holding that a detention for a name check was reasonable).

The name check turned up a warrant from DuPage County that had been issued when Murdock failed to appear in a minor traffic case. The judge who issued the warrant set bond at $3,000, meaning that Murdock could be released upon posting 10% of that amount, or $300. Murdock's girlfriend had that amount of cash with her. The officers took Murdock to the 15th district police station, where Officer Williams-Curington verified the warrant.

Officers at the police station did not allow Murdock to be released on bond, even though Ms. Richardson was ready, willing, and able to post bond for plaintiff, because an express policy of the City of Chicago, discussed below, prohibited the officers from accepting bond and releasing plaintiff. Murdock was therefore held at the police station until the morning when he was transferred to the custody of the Sheriff of Cook County. After Murdock appeared before a Cook County Judge, his girlfriend posted the $300 to pay the bond that had been set by the DuPage County Judge. Murdock was released from custody at about one p.m. on September 29, 2018.

The experiences of plaintiffs Andrew Cruz, Johonest Fischer, Theresa Kennedy, and Brian Neals are similar: each was held overnight on an outstanding warrant before appearing before a judge who permitted the plaintiff to be released by posting the cash bond set in the warrant. (Cruz, Amended Complaint, ¶¶ 22-26; Fischer, ¶¶ 27-36, Kennedy, ¶¶ 42-46, Neals, ¶¶ 62-66.)

B. The Express Municipal Policy

Police officers did not permit plaintiffs to post bond at the police station because of a written policy of the City of Chicago set out in Chicago Police Department “Special Order S06-12-02.” Plaintiffs attach as Exhibit 1 the version that was in force from June 13, 2013 through August 26, 2019 and as Exhibit 2 the version that has been in force since August 26, 2019.

Special Order S06-12-02 is entitled “Non-Traffic Arrest Warrant Procedures.” (Exhibit 1 at 1.) Section IV of the Rule is titled, “Processing Persons Arrested on Warrants” (Exhibit 1 at 3) and applies to all persons detained on a warrant. Relevant to this case is Section IV.B.3 which provided (and continues to provide) as follows:

B. The station supervisor will ensure that:

3. The following will be transported to Central Bond Court:¹

(a) all persons arrested on a warrant [issued] outside of the First Municipal District ...

(c) all persons arrested on all warrants on Saturday, Sunday, and Court Holidays.

(Ex. 1 at 4; Ex. 2 at 5.)

The written policy requires that any person arrested on a warrant issued outside of the City of Chicago (the “First Municipal District”)—as well as “all persons arrested on all warrants on Saturday, Sunday, or court holidays”—may not post bond at the police station, even when the judge who issued the warrant determined the amount of bond and the arrestee is able to post bond. Rather than being released, the municipal policy requires that the arrestee will be held at a police station and transferred the next morning to the Sheriff of Cook County, who will present the arrestee to a judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County.

A much different fate awaits persons arrested on warrants issued in Chicago on weekdays that are not court holidays. The Chicago Police Department allows these persons to post bond at the police station and be

Plaintiffs in this case, acting individually and for others similarly situated, challenge this municipal policy as violative of the Fourth Amendment. See Williams v. Dart, 967 F.3d 625 (7th Cir. 2020).

II. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Is Sufficiently Numerous

Plaintiffs' counsel has identified 3012 persons who, from February 27, 2018 through January 31, 2020 were not permitted to post bond at the police station, and were released after an appearance before a judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County without being processed into the Cook County Jail.² These potential members of the putative class are identified in Exhibit 3 by date transferred to the Sheriff, first name and first initial of last name, and Chicago Police Department identification record number ("IR Number").

Counsel identified these persons from data produced by the Sheriff of Cook County in response to a request under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act.

² The starting date for the class is two years before plaintiff Murdock filed this case on February 27, 2020. The closing date for the class is the date of entry of judgment (or the date the City of Chicago abandons the policy challenged in this case). Williams v. Lane, 129 F.R.D. 636, 649 (N.D. Ill. 1990). Counsel's numerosity computation stops on January 26, 2020, which is the latest date in the data produced by the Sheriff of Cook County.

The Sheriff maintains records of all persons who are assigned identification numbers for potential admission to the Cook County Jail. These records, excluding date of birth and home address, are public records under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq.

Plaintiffs' counsel obtained 1,664,348 Jail intake records (ending on June 30, 2019) from the Sheriff under the Freedom of Information Act. Counsel subsequently obtained 109,067 records from July 1, 2019 through January 31, 2020. Included among these records is an entry for the named plaintiff Anthony Murdock. This record shows that plaintiff was assigned a jail identification number by the Sheriff on September 29, 2018 and left the Sheriff's custody the same day. The record for Murdock also shows a blank entry for charge and case type and a discharge type of "bond paid." Similar records are present for plaintiffs Cruz, Fischer, Kennedy, and Neals

Counsel extracted all similar records from those produced by the Sheriff (using an SQL query of the database counsel created from the FOIA data) and identified the 3012 potential class members, attached as Exhibit 3.

The proposed class is therefore ascertainable from records maintained by the Sheriff of Cook County. Thus, the proposed class is "defined clearly and ... defined by objective criteria rather than by, for example, a class member’s state of mind.” Mullins v. Direct Digital, LLC, 795 F.3d 654, 657 (7th Cir. 2015).

The proposed class in this case meets the numerosity requirement of Rule 23(a)(1) because at more than 3000 persons, it is “reasonable to believe it [is] large enough to make joinder impracticable and thus justify a class action suit.” Arnold Chapman & Paldo Sign & Display Co. v. Wagener Equities Inc., 747 F.3d 489, 492 (7th Cir. 2014). As in Starr v. Chicago Cut Steakhouse, LLC, 75 F. Supp. 3d 859, 872 (N.D. Ill. 2014), counsel’s estimate of the size of the proposed class satisfies the numerosity requirement of Rule 23(a): “While there is no magic number that applies to every case, a forty-member class is often regarded as sufficient to meet the numerosity requirement.” Mulvania v. Sheriff of Rock Island County, 850 F.3d 849, 859 (7th Cir. 2017)

III. Commonality

To satisfy the commonality requirement of Rule 23(a)(2), the “prospective class must articulate at least one common question that will actually advance all of the class members’ claims.” Phillips v. Sheriff of Cook County, 828 F.3d 541, 550 (7th Cir. 2016). In this case, the common question is the constitutionality of defendant City of Chicago’s express policy of refusing to accept bond on weekends and holidays. Once a person has been arrested on a warrant with set bail and can pay the bail, the government “has no legitimate interest in detaining persons for an extended period of time.” Driver v. Marion County Sheriff, 859 F.3d 489, 491 (7th Cir. 2017).

Before the decision of the Supreme Court in Manuel v. City of Joliet, 137 S. Ct. 911 (2017), the three circuits that had considered this issue agreed there was a “constitutionally protected liberty interest” in being released on bail and “that substantive due process protection of this liberty interest attaches once arrestees are deemed eligible for release on bail.” Steele v. Cicchi, 855 F.3d 494, 502 (3d Cir. 2017), citing Dodds v. Richardson, 614 F.3d 1185 (10th Circuit, 2010) and Campbell v. Johnson, 586 F.3d 835, 940 (11th Cir. 2009). The Supreme Court’s recent opinion in Manuel v. Joliet, 137 S. Ct. 911 (2017) suggests that the question should be analyzed under the Fourth Amendment because it is unreasonable to detain a person on a warrant who is ready, willing, and able to post the cash bond that had been set on the warrant. The Seventh Circuit adopted this view in Williams v. Dart, 867 F.3d 625, 632-34 (7th Cir. 2020).

Commonality is satisfied in this case because the proposed class is challenging a general policy. Chicago Teachers Union, Local No. 1 v. Bd. of Educ. of City of Chicago, 797 F.3d 426, 437 (7th Cir. 2015). This is a case like Bishop v. Air Line Pilots Ass’n, Int’l, 331 F.R.D. 481 (N.D. Ill. 2019), where the “claims of all class members depend on the resolution of key common questions.” Id. at 489. There is no meaningful factual variation in this claim, Arreola v. Godinez, 546 F.3d 788, 798 (7th Cir. 2008), and resolution of this common question “will actually advance all of the class members’ claims.” Phillips v. Sheriff of Cook County, 828 F.3d 541, 550 (7th Cir. 2016).

IV. Typicality

Typicality in Rule 23(a)(3) “is closely related to the preceding question of commonality.” Rosario v. Livaditis, 963 F.2d 1013, 1018 (7th Cir. 1992). As this Court observed in Bishop v. Air Line Pilots Ass’n, Int’l, 331 F.R.D. 481 (N.D. Ill. 2019), “typicality is satisfied where the named Plaintiffs’ claim ‘arises from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other class members and is based on the same legal theory.’” Id. at 490 (quoting Muro v. Target Corp., 580 F.3d 485, 492 (7th Cir. 2009)).

Plaintiffs’ challenge to the City’s policy arises “from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other class members and [his] claims are based on the same legal theory.” Oshana v. Coca-Cola Co., 472 F.3d 506, 514 (7th Cir. 2006). The case therefore satisfies the typicality requirement of Rule 23(a)(3).

V. Adequacy

Plaintiffs will adequately represent the proposed class, as required by Rule 23(a)(4).

First, defendants do not have any unique defense against the named plaintiff. Randall v. Rolls–Royce Corp., 637 F.3d 818, 824 (7th Cir. 2011); Lipton v. Chattem, Inc., 289 F.R.D. 456, 459 (N.D. Ill. 2013).

Second, plaintiffs are represented by counsel skilled and experienced in these matters. Plaintiffs’ principal attorney Kenneth N. Flaxman, was admitted to practice in 1972; his work in class action litigation includes United States Parole Commission v. Geraghty, 445 U.S. 388 (1980) (class action challenging federal parole guidelines); Doe v. Calumet City, 128 F.R.D. 93 (N.D. Ill. 1989) (class action challenging strip search practice of Calumet City police department); Calvin v. Sheriff of Will County, 405 F. Supp. 2d 933 (N.D. Ill. 2005) (class action challenging strip search practice at Will County Jail), and Fonder v. Sheriff of Kankakee County, 823 F.3d 1144 (7th Cir. 2016) (class action challenging strip search practice at the Kankakee County Jail). Plaintiffs’ principal attorney has also argued more than 150 federal appeals, including five cases in the United States Supreme Court.³

Plaintiffs’ second attorney Joel A. Flaxman, is also competent to represent the class; he was admitted to practice in 2007, served three years in judicial clerkships,⁴ followed by four years as a trial attorney in the United States Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, before entering private practice.⁵

VI. Rule 23(b)(3)

This Court thoroughly analyzed the predominance and superiority requirements of Rule 23(b)(3) in Bernal v. NRA Group, LLC, 318 F.R.D. 64 (N.D. Ill. 2016). Predominance was satisfied because “the most significant issue in this case can be resolved on a classwide basis, without any individual variation.” Id. at 75-75. Here, the City’s explicit written policy does not allow for individual determination. Commonality is therefore satisfied because the policy is evenly applied to all persons arrested on a warrant on a weekend or a holiday.

In addition, a class action is superior to other methods for adjudicating the claims of the members of the proposed class. Resolution of the legality of the policy will, as the district court observed in Brown v. Cook County, 332 F.R.D. 229 (N.D. Ill. 2019), “achieve economies of time, effort, and expense,’ and the claims are therefore well-suited for class treatment.” Id. at 247 (quoting Amchem v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 615 (1997)). Finally, any need for an individual assessment of damages is not a ground for refusing to allow a case to proceed as a class action. Mulvania v. Sheriff of Rock Island County, 850 F.3d 849, 859 (7th Cir. 2017); see also McMahon v. LVNV Funding, LLC, 807 F.3d 872 (7th Cir. 2015); Mullins v. Direct Digital, LLC, 795 F.3d 654, 671 (7th Cir. 2015); Butler v. Sears, Roebuck & Co, 727 F.3d 796, 800 (7th Cir. 2013).

⁴ Counsel was a staff law clerk for the Seventh Circuit from 2007 to 2009 and then a law clerk for the Honorable Rebecca Pallmeyer from 2009 to 2010.

⁵ With co-counsel, plaintiffs’ second attorney has served as class counsel in several recent cases, including Conyers v. City of Chicago, No. 12 CV 06144, 2017 WL 4310511 (N.D. Ill. Sept. 28, 2017); Wilson v. City of Evanston, No. 14 C 8347, 2017 WL 3730817 (N.D. Ill. Aug. 30, 2017); Bell v. Dart, No. 14 C 8059, 2016 WL 337144 (N.D. Ill. Jan. 26, 2016); Beley v. City of Chicago, No. 12 C 9714, 2015 WL 8153377, at *1 (N.D. Ill. Dec. 7, 2015); and Lacy v. Dart, No. 14 C 6259, 2015 WL 1995576 (N.D. Ill. Apr. 30, 2015).

VII. Conclusion

For the reasons above stated, the Court should order that this case be maintained as a class action under Rule 23(b)(3) for

All persons who, on and after February 27, 2018,

- (a) were detained by police officers of the City of Chicago on a warrant for which a judge had set an amount of cash bail,
- (b) were not permitted to post bail at the police station pursuant to the explicit policies set out in Section IV.B.3(a) or IV.B.3(c) of Chicago Police Department Special Order S06-12-02, and
- (c) were released by posting bail after an appearance before a judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County without being held at the Cook County Jail.

Warrants which do not contain sufficient information to distinguish the person named in the warrant from others of similar names will be returned to the issuing court.
 2. stamp the warrant number assigned by the computer on the BACK of the warrant document.
 3. file the warrant and the complaint until served or returned to the Clerk of the Circuit Court.
 4. enter criminal warrant data into the Law Enforcement Agency Data Systems (LEADS) computer only when the charge is a felony or a class A or B misdemeanor charge and enter criminal warrant data into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) system when the charge is for a Class "X" felony (homicide, armed robbery, aggravated arson, etc.).

NOTE: In exceptional cases and upon the approval of the States Attorney or Chief, Bureau of Detectives, a felony warrant may be placed in the LEADS and NCIC systems for an offense other than those enumerated above.

5. when notified that a person named in a warrant has been taken into custody:
 - a. verify the validity of the warrant via the Clerk of the Circuit Court computer.
 - b. after verifying the validity of the warrant, document the warrant in the hot desk and record the time that verification was attempted and/or completed.
 - c. record the name and star or employee number of the Department member making the notification entered into the clerk's mainframe, then print out a hard copy.
 - d. immediately notify the station supervisor of the detention facility when it is determined that the warrant is invalid or the person in custody is not the person named in the warrant.
 - e. if the inquiry reveals that the warrant is valid, make photocopies of the arrest warrant and complaint when available, stamp all copies with a stamp denoting "COPY," and transmit a facsimile copy of the warrant and complaint, if any, to the district of detention.

- f. provide warrant information to the arresting officer, such as docket number or case number, and send a facsimile copy of the Arrest Warrant Execution Verification (CCG0657) form to the district of detention.
6. update warrants to "inactive" status in the computer system when a warrant is to be removed from the active file (e.g., served, quashed, deleted).
7. upon return of a facsimile copy of a warrant by a unit consistent with Item V of this directive, ensure that the original is reinstated to the active file.
8. upon notification that the person named in the warrant is already in the custody of an outside agency, take appropriate action to ensure that the warrant is served.

In instances when a warrant is discovered during the identification processing, the notification will be made immediately by the Identification Section / Instant Update Unit.
- E. The extradition officer will complete the initial top sections of the Intrastate Hold Affidavit sections from the top of the document down to, but not including, the section labeled "IDENTIFICATION / DESCRIPTION OF PERSON IN CUSTODY" for each warrant issued by an Illinois court after a determination of identity has been made and will send the partially completed Intrastate Hold Affidavit, for each warrant, to the district of detention station supervisor via facsimile.

IV. PROCESSING PERSONS ARRESTED ON WARRANTS

- A. The arresting officer will:
 1. in addition to the procedures outlined below, process arrestees in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Department directive entitled "Processing Persons Under Department Control."
 2. indicated on the Arrest Report the warrant charge and local charges for each warrant, if any. In addition, the following information for each warrant is to be listed on the Arrest Report:
 - a. Warrant number
 - b. Warrant charge
 - c. Court branch
 - d. Amount of bond
 - e. Judge's name
 - f. Identification Record (IR) number listed on the warrant, if any
 - g. Docket number, if known.

NOTE: The arresting officer will complete all required fields on the Arrest Warrant Execution Verification form and submit it to the station supervisor. The station supervisor will ensure the form is included with the documents that comprise the court package for this arrest.

3. follow procedures for charging a fugitive apprehended on a warrant issued in another state in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Extradition Procedures." All fugitive warrant arrests go to Court Branch 98, even with local charges.
4. process persons apprehended on warrants issued within the State of Illinois:
 - a. The original signature of the arresting officer should appear on the Intrastate Hold Affidavit whenever possible. However, the processing and/or transporting of arrestees to the Central Detention Section, when required, will not be delayed in order to obtain the partially completed affidavit from the extradition officer or the original signature of the arresting officer. Instead, the Intrastate Hold Affidavit will be completed by the station supervisor at the district of detention or by the 001 District station supervisor when the Intrastate Hold Affidavit is hand-delivered by the extradition officer, who will ensure the LEADS hit printout is attached to the affidavit.

- b. If further information is needed to complete the affidavit, the station supervisor will verify the required information via the extradition officer (e.g., a fingerprint or photograph comparison if significant discrepancies between the physical description of the person in custody and the person named in the warrant are noted).
5. verify the information and physical description of the subject named in the warrant matches the subject in custody.

NOTE: If significant discrepancies between the physical description of the arrestee and the person named in the warrant are noted, the station supervisor of the detention facility has the final authority of determining whether or not the arrestee will be processed for the warrant.

6. include the original charges on the warrant, stated in the narrative section of the arrest report.
- B. The station supervisor will ensure that:
1. all persons arrested on a Cook County Sheriff's warrant returnable to the First Municipal District are transported from the district of arrest to the court of issuance (the local Branch Court, Traffic Court, or 26th and California, as appropriate).
 2. all persons arrested on a warrant issued outside of the first Municipal District and who have local charges are transported from the district of arrest to the local branch court according to the Case Priority Listing Unit Matrix outlined in the Department Directive entitled "Court Call Schedule."
 3. the following will be transported to Central Bond Court:
 - a. all persons arrested on a warrant outside of the First Municipal District and no local charges,
 - b. all persons arrested on a warrant issued from Criminal Trial Court and no local charges, and
 - c. all persons arrested on all warrants on Saturday, Sunday, and Court Holidays.
 4. all persons arrested on a Illinois Department of Corrections Warrant without local charges are transported to the Central Detention Section.
 5. all persons arrested on serviceable Child Support Warrants are transported to the Central Detention Section.
 6. arrestees are processed in accordance with the procedures outlined in this directive and the Department directive entitled "Processing Persons Under Department Control."
 7. the arrestee's IR number, if available, and the IR number listed on the facsimile copy of the warrant are the same before the arrestee is let to bail or sent to court.
 8. all facsimile copies of local warrant(s) and complaint(s), if available, have been received. If a copy of the warrant is not received by the time the booking process is completed, immediately:
 - a. notify the Central Warrant Unit;
 - b. request that a copy of the warrant be transmitted immediately; and
 - c. at the end of the tour of duty, inform the oncoming station supervisor that the Intrastate Hold Affidavit has not been received.

9. the following documents identified in the Checklist of Required Court Documents for Prisoner Transfer to Cook County Sheriff Personnel (CPD-34.441) are attached to the remaining court papers as indicated in the Department directive entitled "Processing Persons Under Department Control."
 10. if at the end of the tour of duty, a facsimile copy of the warrant, complaint, and the Intrastate Hold Affidavit have not been received, the oncoming station supervisor is informed. The oncoming station supervisor will then be responsible for ensuring that the facsimile copies of the warrant, complaint, Intrastate Hold Affidavit, and copies of the computer-generated printouts of the LEADS hit are received and attached to the appropriate court papers.
- C. The 001 District station supervisor will ensure that:
