DEFENDANT RONALD WATTS' ANSWER TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

Defendant, Ronald Watts, by and through his attorneys, JOHNSON & BELL, LTD., in answer to Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint states as follows:

1. Since January 2016, the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois has overturned 110 wrongful convictions based on the staggering corruption of Sergeant Ronald Watts and his corrupt team of Chicago Police officers.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits based on information and belief that the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois has overturned 110 convictions. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

2. Antwan Bradley was convicted of crimes that he did not commit, and he is one of the most recent of the Watts team's wrongful convictions to be overturned.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

3. The crime for which Mr. Bradley was framed never happened; it was completely fabricated by corrupt Chicago police officers.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

4. Mr. Bradley was arrested on April 11, 2008.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

5. Mr. Bradley's arrest occurred at the Ida B. Wells housing complex, a location that was heavily policed by corrupt Chicago police officers.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that plaintiff was arrested at the Ida B. Wells housing complex but denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

6. The corrupt officers sought bribes, planted drugs, and falsely accused many people, including Mr. Bradley, of possessing drugs.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

7. The type of encounter these police officers had with Mr. Bradley were unfortunately quite common, and the consequences were dire: false arrests, criminal proceedings, incarcerations, and a subsequent felony record.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

8. Believing that he faced no chance of winning at trial following his April 11, 2008, Mr. Bradley eventually pled guilty to the false charges.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Plaintiff admitted guilt but denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

9. After Mr. Bradley had completed his sentence, Defendants Watts and his former colleague Kallatt Mohammed were caught on tape engaging in the exact type of misconduct that Mr. Bradley had alleged.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

10. The federal government charged Watts and Mohammed criminally, and the disgraced officers pled guilty and served time in federal prison.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph relating to the criminal charges, guilty pleas, and prison sentence. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

11. Since then, evidence has come to light showing that Defendant Watts and his crew engaged in a pattern of criminal misconduct against public housing residents and visitors and that Chicago Police Department officials have long known about that pattern.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

12. The scope of this misconduct cannot be overstated.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

13. For example, the Chief Justice of Illinois' Court of Claims has written that "many individuals were wrongfully convicted," explaining that "Watts and his team of police officers ran what can only be described as a criminal enterprise right out of the movie 'Training Day.'"

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that the Chief Justice of Illinois's Court of Claims made the statement referenced above. Ronald Watts denies that the statement is true, and denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

14. The Court of Claims Chief Justice explained that "[o]n many occasions when these residents [of public housing] refused to pay the extortive demands the Watts crew would fabricate drug charges against them."

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that the Chief Justice of Illinois's Court of Claims made the statement referenced above. Ronald Watts denies that the statement is true, and denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

15. The Illinois Appellate Court, too, has weighed in on the scope of the scandal, repeatedly calling Watts and his team "corrupt police officers" and "criminals" and chastising the City's police disciplinary oversight body for doing "nothing to slow down the criminals" and their rampant misconduct and perjury.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

16. On or around November 16, 2017, the Cook County State's Attorney Office (CCSAO) successfully moved to vacate the convictions of 15 individuals framed by the Watts outfit.

ANSWER: Based on information and belief, Ronald Watts admits that the convictions were vacated. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

17. In light of that decision by the CCSAO, and recognizing the scope of misconduct that the City had allowed to flourish more than a decade unabated, fifteen (15) members of the Watts crew were placed on desk duty.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this relating to him. Defendant Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

18. Since then, the CCSAO has successfully moved to vacate many more convictions.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

19. As of the filing of this complaint, over 100 convictions have been vacated as a result of the Watts team's misconduct.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits based on information and belief that 100 convictions have been vacated. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

20. In recognition of the scope of their misconduct, the CSSAO will no longer call many of Watts's team – including Defendants in this case – as witnesses "due to concerns about [their] credibility and alleged involvement in the misconduct of Sergeant Watts."

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph relating to him. Defendant Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

21. Through this lawsuit, Mr. Bradley seeks accountability and compensation for being deprived of his liberty as a result of Defendants' misconduct.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that plaintiff's complaint seeks damages, but he denies liability to plaintiff for any of the claims asserted in the complaint and/or the damages alleged therein. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

22. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 to redress the deprivation under color of law of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Constitution of the United States.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits this action includes claims that purport to be based on 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Ronald Watts denies any of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

23. This Court has jurisdiction over federal claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). Defendant City of Chicago is a municipal corporation located here. Additionally, the events giving rise to the claims asserted herein occurred within this judicial district.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits this Court has jurisdiction over federal and state law claims. Ronald Watts admits venue is proper for the claims asserted in this action and that the City of Chicago is a municipal corporation located in this judicial district. Ronald Watts further admits that the events giving rise to the claims asserted in the complaint occurred within this judicial district. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to whether Plaintiff resides in this judicial district.

24. Mr. Bradley is 31 years old. He currently resides in Chicago, Illinois.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

25. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants former Chicago Police Sergeant Ronald Watts, Sergeant Alvin Jones, and Officer Elsworth Smith Jr., were police officers employed by the City of Chicago and acting within the scope of their employment and under the color of law. Collectively, these individual Defendants are referred to as Defendant Officers.

ANSWER: The plaintiff has failed to specify which period constitutes “all times relevant,” thus Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

26. At all relevant times, Defendant Watts was a leader of the Second District Tactical Team that worked the Ida B. Wells housing complex.

ANSWER: The plaintiff has failed to specify which period constitutes “all times relevant,” thus Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

27. Defendants Jones and Elsworth Smith Jr. worked on Watts’s tactical team.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

28. At all relevant times, Defendant Phillip J. Cline was the Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department.

ANSWER: The plaintiff has failed to specify which period constitutes “all times relevant,” thus Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

29. At all relevant times, Defendants Debra Kirby and Karen Rowan were Assistant Deputy Superintendents of the Chicago Police Department, acting as the heads of its Internal Affairs Division (IAD). Collectively, Defendant Kirby, Defendant Cline, and Defendant Rowan are referred to as Defendant Supervisory Officers.

ANSWER: The plaintiff has failed to specify which period constitutes “all times relevant,” thus Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

30. Defendant City of Chicago is a municipal corporation under the laws of the State of Illinois. The City operates the Chicago Police Department (CPD) and is responsible for the policies, practices, and customs of the City and the CPD.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

31. During the 2000s, Mr. Bradley visited family who lived in the Chicago Housing Authority's Ida B Wells housing complex.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

32. During the times complained of, the Ida B. Wells complex was actively patrolled by a tactical team of CPD officers, led by Defendant Watts.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that, sometimes during the 2000s, the tactical team of which he was a sergeant patrolled the Ida B. Wells complex.

33. Watts and his tactical team members were well known to the residents of Ida B. Wells and the surrounding area.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

34. Watts and his tactical team members maintained a visible presence in the Ida B. Wells area. The Watts team had a reputation in the community for harassing, intimidating, and fabricating criminal charges against the area's residents and visitors.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that he and his team were visible in the Wells Homes. Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

35. The Watts team's pattern of harassment continued with Mr. Bradley.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

36. In fact, prior to his April 11, 2008 arrest, Mr. Bradley had been arrested by Defendant Jones for trespassing at Ida B. Wells.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

37. On April 11, 2008, Mr. Bradley and a friend were standing outside of an Ida B. Wells building, waiting for Mr. Bradley's cousin who lived there.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

38. Defendants Watts and Jones approached Mr. Bradley and his friend and brought them into the lobby of the building.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

39. Mr. Bradley was not doing anything illegal, and he did not have any drugs on him.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

40. Nonetheless Defendant officers stopped, separated, and then illegally searched Mr. Bradley and his friend.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

41. While Mr. Bradley was being searched, Defendant Jones began to curse at and physically assault Mr. Bradley. Defendant Jones threatened Mr. Bradley, telling him that if he refused to give Defendant Jones information or pay him, he would go to jail.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

42. While he was being abused and searched, Mr. Bradley told Defendant Officers that he did not have any information, and he had not done anything wrong.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph as they relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

43. Defendant Officers found no drugs or other illegal items when they searched Mr. Bradley.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

44. Nevertheless, Defendant Officers then brought Mr. Bradley and his friend back together, before handcuffing them and illegally searching them once again. Still, Defendant Officers found no drugs or other illegal items.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

45. Defendant Watts told Mr. Bradley what Defendant Jones had previously told him – that if he refused to give the Defendants information or money, they were going to arrest him.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph as they relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

46. Mr. Bradley again told Defendants he did not have any information or money to give them.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

47. Defendant Watts then left for approximately 15 minutes, while Mr. Bradley and his friend remained detained.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

48. After he returned, Defendant Watts eventually pulled out a bag of drugs he had on his person, and said they were Mr. Bradley's.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

49. Mr. Bradley was arrested and transported to the police station.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

50. Mr. Bradley was charged with possession of a controlled substance.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

51. The Defendant Officers prepared false and fabricated police reports related to Mr. Bradley's arrest.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

52. On the basis of these false reports, Mr. Bradley was prosecuted for felony possession of a controlled substance.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

53. Even though Mr. Bradley was innocent of these charges, knowing that he risked significant time in prison if he went to trial and lost, Mr. Bradley accepted a plea deal.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

54. Prior to this plea deal, Mr. Bradley spent months in County Jail.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

55. At his plea hearing, Mr. Bradley was sentenced to two years of probation.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

56. Defendant Officers never disclosed to the prosecutors that they had fabricated evidence and falsified police reports related to Mr. Bradley's arrest.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

57. Defendant Officers never disclosed to the prosecutors any of their misconduct described herein. If the prosecutors had known that Defendant Officers fabricated evidence and committed the other misconduct described herein, they would not have pursued the prosecution of Mr. Bradley.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph relating to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

58. It was no secret within the CPD that Watts and his crew engaged in the type of misconduct described herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

59. Government officials, including City of Chicago employees, knew about Watts's and his crew's alleged misconduct as early as 1999.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

60. Shortly thereafter, an FBI investigation of Watts and his crew was underway. The FBI investigation took place with the knowledge and occasional participation of the Chicago Police Department's Internal Affairs Division (IAD).

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

61. Because IAD was kept abreast of the FBI investigation, during the times complained of, City officials—including but not limited to the head of IAD and CPD Superintendent Philip J. Cline—were aware of credible allegations that Watts and his team were extorting and soliciting bribes from drug dealers.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

62. Watts used a drug dealer named "Big Shorty" to run drugs at the Ida B. Wells complex. Big Shorty would sell the drugs, turning profits over to Watts in exchange for Watts's protection. Watts used drug dealers as phony informants to conduct illegal searches. Watts also offered to let arrestees go if they provided him with weapons, drugs, or money.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

63. Targets of the FBI investigation extended beyond Watts to members of Watts's tactical team, including some of the Defendant Officers named herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

64. During the times complained of, the FBI investigation generated evidence showing that Watts engaged in systematic extortion, theft, the possession and distribution of drugs for money, planting drugs on subjects, and paying informants with drugs.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

65. Investigators also determined that Watts and his subordinates had engaged in these activities for years.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

66. In 2012, after at least a decade of engaging in criminal misconduct, Defendants Watts and Mohammed were caught red-handed, shaking down a person they thought was a drug courier but who was actually an agent for the FBI.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits he pled guilty to theft of government funds based on evidence from an undercover operation involving a cooperating witness working with the FBI. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

67. The U.S. government subsequently charged Watts and Mohammed with federal crimes.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegation in this paragraph.

68. Watts and Mohammed each pled guilty to federal criminal charges and both were sentenced to terms of imprisonment. See United States v. Watts, No. 12- CR-87-1 (N.D. Ill.); United States v. Mohammed, No. 12-CR-87-2 (N.D. Ill.).

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegation in this paragraph.

69. In its sentencing memorandum in the criminal case against Watts, the government explained that “[f]or years the defendant [Watts] used his badge and his position as a sergeant with the Chicago Police Department to shield his own criminal activity from law enforcement scrutiny.”

His crimes included “stealing drug money and extorting protection payments” from the individuals he was sworn to protect and serve.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph only quote a portion of that memorandum. Ronald Watts denies any allegations in this paragraph that are inconsistent therewith.

70. The government revealed that, for years, Defendants Watts and Mohammed extorted tens of thousands of dollars in bribes from individuals at the Ida B. Wells public housing complex on numerous occasions as part of their duties with the CPD.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

71. During the sentencing hearing, the government urged Judge Sharon Johnson Coleman to “consider the other criminal conduct that the defendant [Watts] engaged in throughout the course of his career as a police officer,” specifically noting that during the federal investigation, Watts “did other things such as putting a false case on the confidential source that was involved in our investigation. Watts had him arrested on drug charges. And the source . . . felt he had no chance of successfully fighting that case so he pled guilty to a crime he didn’t commit.” The federal prosecutor wondered aloud “how many times [Watts] might have done something similar when the government was not involved.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that the allegations in this paragraph quote a portion of that sentencing hearing. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

72. Following the federal indictments of Watts and Mohammed, City officials made efforts to downplay the magnitude of Watts’s criminal enterprise.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

73. Notwithstanding the evidence investigators had amassed over the years pointing to a wide, decade-long criminal enterprise, CPD Superintendent Garry McCarthy publicly stated, “There is nobody involved other than the two officers who were arrested.” As described in more detail below, McCarthy was wrong.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

74. While the federal government was investigating Watts and his crew, a “code of silence” existed within the Chicago Police Department.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

75. Under this code, police officers are expected to conceal each other’s misconduct, in contravention of their sworn duties, and penalties for breaking the code of silence within the CPD are severe.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

76. As one CPD officer has explained, “[The Chicago Police Academy told officers] over and over again we do not break the code of silence. Blue is Blue. You stick together. If something occurs on the street that you don’t think is proper, you go with the flow. And after that situation, if you have an issue with that officer or what happened, you can confront them. If you don’t feel comfortable working with them anymore, you can go to the watch commander and request a new partner. But you never break the code of silence.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

77. Pursuant to this “code of silence,” each of the Defendant Officers concealed from Mr. Bradley information that Watts and his crew members were in fact engaged in a wide-ranging pattern of misconduct. Had this information been disclosed to Mr. Bradley he would have used it to impeach the officers' accounts, which would have changed the outcome of the criminal proceedings instituted against him.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

78. Also, consistent with this "code of silence," the few people who stood up to Watts and his crew and/or attempted to report his misconduct were either ignored or punished, while Watts and his crew continued to engage in misconduct with impunity.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

79. In or around 2006, two Chicago police officers, Daniel Echeverria and Shannon Spaulding, learned credible information from arrestees that Watts and his crew were engaged in illegal drug activity.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

80. Officer Echeverria took the allegations seriously and reported them to a CPD supervisor. The supervisor made clear that he was not interested in hearing about the allegations, and he directed Echeverria not to document the allegations.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

81. Echeverria and Spaulding subsequently reported the allegations about Watts and his crew to the FBI. Soon thereafter, Echeverria and Spaulding began cooperating with the FBI and actively assisting the FBI with its investigation of Watts and his crew.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

82. When their cooperation became known to officers within their CPD chain of command, Spaulding and Echeverria were labeled “rats” within the Department, their lives were threatened, and they endured all manner of professional retaliation by members of the CPD.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

83. Spaulding and Echeverria subsequently sued the City for the retaliation they suffered for blowing the whistle on Watts and his crew. On the eve of trial in that case, the City settled for $2 million.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

84. Sometime in the mid-2000s, CPD Officer Michael Spaargaren was assigned to work with Watts in public housing.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Michael Spaargaren was a Chicago Police Department officer, and that Watts was a sergeant of the 4512 Tactical team on which Spaargaren worked. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

85. Spaargaren observed that Watts did not inventory drugs and money that officers seized during arrests, and Spaargaren confronted Watts about the misconduct.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

86. In response, Watts threatened to fabricate allegations of misconduct against Spaargaren and made veiled threats to kill him.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

87. A CPD lieutenant in the chain of command—James Spratte—subsequently warned Spaargaren to keep his mouth shut or his life would be in danger.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

88. Fearful for his life, Spaargaren opted to take a one-and-a-half-year leave of absence from CPD rather than continue to work under Watts.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

89. Defendants Watts, Mohammed, and other members of Watts's tactical team accumulated hundreds of citizen complaints concerning violations of citizens' civil rights over the years. These complaints began well before the misconduct Defendants committed against Mr. Bradley. Despite the shocking number of citizen complaints directed against Watts and his team, the City did nothing to stop the misconduct.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that he has been the subject of citizen complaints during the course of his career. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

90. As for the complaints that the City bothered to investigate, the City often failed to seek out known witnesses and corroborating evidence and even ignored corroborating evidence to instead side with officer's boilerplate denials over complainants and their witnesses—no matter how many citizens came forward with the same type of complaint.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

91. The Illinois Appellate Court criticized the City for its utter failure to address the misconduct of Watts and his team.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

92. In multiple instances, the City actually assigned Watts to investigate complaints made against him or members of the team he supervised.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that, on more than one occasion, he was assigned to investigate complaints made against him or his team members.

93. Despite all of the evidence that was amassed over the years of a pattern and practice of criminal misconduct by Defendant Officers, the City never undertook its own investigation of the clear pattern that emerged.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

94. As City officials were aware, the purpose of the FBI investigation was to investigate and prosecute criminal activity, not to impose discipline and control of the City's Police Department.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

95. Nothing about the FBI investigation relieved the City of its fundamental responsibility to supervise, discipline, and control its officers.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

96. Nevertheless, the City completely abdicated this responsibility, allowing the widespread misconduct to continue undeterred throughout the FBI's criminal investigation of Watts and his crew.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

97. During the FBI investigation, which spanned at least eight years, City officials had reason to believe that Watts and his crew were committing ongoing criminal activity on the streets—extorting drug dealers and framing citizens for crimes they did not commit—yet City officials took no steps to prevent these abuses from occurring.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

98. Instead, City officials let officers on Watts's crew continue to pursue criminal charges against citizens like Mr. Bradley and continue to fabricate false police reports and testify falsely against citizens like Mr. Bradley.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

99. City officials withheld information they had about the officers' pattern of transgressions—information that citizens like Mr. Bradley could have used to impeach the corrupt officers and defend against the bogus criminal charges brought against them.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

100. After the extensive scope of Defendant Watts and his crew's corruption came to light, on September 12, 2017, a group of similarly-situated innocent victims filed a Consolidated Petition for Relief From Judgment and To Vacate Convictions Pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-1401 ("Consolidated Petition").

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Plaintiff and others filed a Consolidated Petition for Relief From Judgment and To Vacate Convictions Pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-1401 on September 12, 2017. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

101. On November 16, 2017, upon the State's motion, Judge LeRoy K. Martin, Jr. vacated and nolle prossed all of the convictions related to the fifteen (15) Petitioners named in the Consolidated Petition.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

102. In commenting on the extraordinary decision to agree to vacate all of the convictions tied to Watts and his team, the head of Cook County State's Attorney's Office's

Conviction Integrity Unit, Mark Rotert, stated that, “In these cases, we concluded, unfortunately, that police were not being truthful and we couldn’t have confidence in the integrity of their reports and their testimony.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Mark Rotert made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Rotert and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

103. On September 24, 2018, eighteen (18) other similarly-situated innocent victims were given a semblance of justice. Upon the State’s motion, Judge LeRoy K. Martin, Jr. vacated 23 convictions, and the State nolle prossed all charges related to the convictions stemming from Watts and his team’s wrongful arrests.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that on September 24, 2018, on the State’s motion, Judge LeRoy K. Martin, Jr. vacated 23 convictions, and the State nolle prossed charges for certain individuals arrested by the 4512 or 264 tactical team. Ronald Watts denies the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

104. Following this decision, Mr. Rotert explained that “these arrests were purely conjured . . . [Watts and his team] were basically arresting people and framing them or were claiming they were involved in drug offenses that either didn’t occur or didn’t occur the way these police officers said.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Rotert made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Rotert and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

105. At a press conference where she stood side-by-side with many of the exonerated, CCSAO elected State’s Attorney Kim Foxx stated that “[t]he system owes an apology to the men who stand behind us.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Foxx made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Foxx and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

106. On November 2, 2018, seven (7) more victims had eight (8) additional convictions voluntarily dismissed by the CCSAO.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits based on information and belief, that on November 2, 2018, the CCSAO voluntarily dismissed eight convictions of certain individuals. Ronald Watts denies that these individuals were “victims.”

107. In a Press Release, CCSA Foxx stated that Watts’s and his team’s “pattern of misconduct” caused her “to lose confidence in the initial arrests and the validity of these convictions.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Foxx made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Foxx and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

108. Referring to the exonerees as “victims,” Ms. Foxx wished them “a path forward in healing and justice.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Foxx made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Foxx and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

109. The CCSAO has since voluntarily dismissed additional convictions.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits the allegations in this paragraph.

110. On February 24, 2020, after another mass dismissal – in which Mr. Bradley was exonerated – and in reference to the Watts scandal, Ms. Foxx stated: “I think it’s important that we acknowledge the harm that was caused when we talk about these cases. It’s not just these men. It’s the erosion of the trust in the justice system when we allow for those [men] to be wrongfully convicted based on the misdeeds of corrupt law enforcement.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Foxx made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Foxx and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

111. On December 15, 2020, after another mass dismissal and in reference to the Watts scandal, Ms. Foxx stated: “The seeds of distrust for our criminal justice system run deeply in communities most impacted by violence because of people in power like Sergeant Watts and his cronies who targeted and criminally preyed on these communities, leaving these neighborhoods feeling like their voice didn’t matter.” Regarding the exonerations, Ms. Foxx went on to state that it is “always the right time to do the right thing” and “never too late to deliver justice” to the Watts-related victims.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Foxx made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Foxx and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

112. Then again on February 19, 2021, after yet another mass dismissal, Ms. Foxx stated: “Vacating the convictions of these nine people today who were targeted by former Police Sergeant Watts provides just a fraction of relief for those who spent time in prison, away from their families, as we will never be able to give them that time back.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that Foxx made that statement. Ronald Watts denies the allegations made by Foxx and the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

113. The CCSAO will no longer call certain members of Watts’s crew, including some of the Defendant Officers named herein, as witnesses in any pending or future matters due to concerns about their credibility and alleged involvement in misconduct.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

114. In November 2017, former Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department, Eddie T. Johnson, placed multiple members of Watts’s crew on desk duty.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

115. On February 4, 2021, following his December 15, 2020 exoneration, Mr. Bradley received a certificate of innocence stemming from his 2008 arrest and conviction certifying that Mr. Bradley was, in fact, innocent of the crime he was convicted of to begin with and should never have been arrested in the first place.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

116. Because of the Defendants' acts and omissions, Mr. Bradley was subjected to police harassment and unfair criminal proceedings.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

117. The Defendant Officers' misconduct and false accusations subjected Mr. Bradley to felony convictions and wrongful incarceration before he was exonerated.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

118. The pain and suffering caused by being wrongfully incarcerated has been significant. During his incarceration in Cook County Jail, Mr. Bradley was deprived of the everyday pleasures of basic human life and his freedom was taken from him. Since then, Mr. Bradley has had to live with a felony conviction that he did not deserve.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

119. As a result of the foregoing, Mr. Bradley has suffered emotional damages proximately caused by Defendants' wrongdoing.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

120. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

121. In the manner described more fully above, Defendant Officers, while acting as investigators, individually, jointly, and in conspiracy with each other, deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional right to due process and a fair trial.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

122. In the manner described more fully above, Defendant Officers deliberately withheld exculpatory evidence from Plaintiff and from state prosecutors, among others, as well as knowingly fabricated false evidence, thereby misleading and misdirecting the criminal prosecution of Plaintiff.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

123. Likewise, in the manner described more fully above, Defendants Philip J. Cline, Debra Kirby, Karen Rowan, and other as-yet-unidentified CPD supervisors, had knowledge of a pattern of misconduct by Watts and his team. These Defendant Supervisory Officers knew of a substantial risk that Watts and his team would violate the rights of Mr. Bradley and other residents and visitors of the Ida B. Wells complex, and they deliberately chose a course of action that allowed those abuses to continue, thereby condoning those abuses.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

124. The constitutional injuries complained of herein were proximately caused by the intentional misconduct of Defendant Supervisory Officers, or were proximately caused when Defendant Supervisory Officers were deliberately, recklessly indifferent to their subordinates' misconduct, knowing that turning a blind eye to that misconduct would necessarily violate Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph as they relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

125. In addition, Defendant Supervisory Officers themselves concealed exculpatory evidence from Mr. Bradley, specifically information about Watts and his team's pattern of misconduct. In this way, Defendant Supervisory Officers violated Mr. Bradley's due process right to a fair trial deliberately and with reckless disregard for Mr. Bradley's rights.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

126. Defendants' misconduct directly resulted in the unjust criminal conviction of Plaintiff, denying him of his constitutional right to due process and a fair trial guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment. Absent this misconduct, the prosecution of Plaintiff could not and would not have been pursued.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

127. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with reckless and deliberate indifference to the rights of others, and in total disregard of the truth and of Mr. Bradley's clear innocence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

128. Defendants' actions were taken under color of law and within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

129. The City of Chicago is also directly liable for the injuries described in this Count because the City and CPD maintained official policies and customs that were the moving force behind the violation of Plaintiff's rights, and also because the actions of the final policymaking officials for Defendant City of Chicago and CPD were the moving force behind the violation of Plaintiff's rights.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

130. At all times relevant to the events described in this Complaint and for a period of time prior thereto, Defendant City of Chicago maintained a system that violated the due process rights of criminal defendants like Mr. Bradley by concealing exculpatory evidence of Chicago police officers' patterns of misconduct.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

131. In addition, at all times relevant to the events described in this Complaint and for a period of time prior thereto, Defendant City of Chicago had notice of a widespread practice by its officers and agents under which criminal suspects, such as Mr. Bradley, were routinely deprived of exculpatory evidence, were subjected to criminal proceedings based on false evidence, and were deprived of liberty without probable cause, such that individuals were routinely implicated in crimes to which they had no connection and for which there was scant evidence to suggest that they were involved.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

132. As a matter of both policy and practice, Defendant City directly encourages, and is thereby the moving force behind, the very type of misconduct at issue here by failing to adequately train, supervise, control, and discipline its police officers, such that its failure to do so manifests deliberate indifference. Defendant City's practices lead police officers in the City of Chicago to believe that their actions will never be scrutinized and, in that way, directly encourage further abuses such as those that Mr. Bradley endured.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph as they relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

133. The above-described widespread practices, which were so well settled as to constitute the de facto policy of the City of Chicago, were allowed to exist because municipal policymakers with authority over the same exhibited deliberate indifference to the problem, thereby effectively ratifying it. These widespread practices were allowed to flourish because Defendant City and the CPD declined to implement sufficient policies or training, even though the need for such policies and training was obvious. Defendant City and the CPD also declined to implement any legitimate mechanism for oversight or punishment of officers, thereby leading officers to believe that they could violate citizens' constitutional rights with impunity.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

134. Furthermore, the misconduct described in this Complaint was undertaken pursuant to the policy and practices of Defendant City in that the constitutional violations committed against Plaintiff were committed with the knowledge or approval of persons with final policymaking authority for the City of Chicago and the CPD, or were actually committed by persons with such final policymaking authority.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

135. Indeed, municipal policymakers have long been aware of Defendant City's policy and practice of failing to properly train, monitor, investigate, and discipline misconduct by its police officers, but have failed to take action to remedy the problem.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

136. For example, at a City Council hearing on September 28, 1999, in response to two high-profile unjustified police shootings, then Superintendent Terry Hillard noted the need for better in-service training on the use of force, early detection of potential problem officers, and officer accountability for the use of force.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

137. In June 2000, the Chairman of the Committee on Police and Fire of the Chicago City Council submitted an official resolution recognizing that “[Chicago] police officers who do not carry out their responsibilities in a professional manner have ample reason to believe that they will not be held accountable, even in instances of egregious misconduct.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

138. In 2001, the Justice Coalition of Greater Chicago (JCGC), a coalition of more than a hundred community groups, confirmed the findings of that resolution, concluding that the CPD lacked many of the basic tools necessary to identify, monitor, punish, and prevent police misconduct. The JCGC findings were presented to Mayor Richard Daley, Superintendent Hillard, and the Chicago Police Board.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

139. Despite municipal policymakers’ knowledge of the City’s failed policies and practices to adequately train, supervise, investigate, discipline, and control its police officers, nothing was done to remedy these problems.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

140. As a result, the CPD has continued to respond to complaints of police misconduct inadequately and with undue delay, and has continued to recommend discipline in a disproportionately small number of cases.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

141. Indeed, by its own admissions, more than 99% of the time when a citizen complains that his or her civil rights were violated by police officers, the City sides with the police officer and concludes that no violation occurred.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

142. Before she was elected Mayor of the City of Chicago, then-Police Board Chair, Lori Lightfoot made clear that “[a]ny of those officers [on Watts team] who remain on the job must be quickly brought to justice through criminal prosecution and/or disciplinary action.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

143. However, as of the filing of this complaint, the Lightfoot administration has not taken any action against the officers.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

144. Notably, Defendant Watts and his crew are not the first Chicago police officers who were allowed to abuse citizens with impunity over a period of years while the City turned a blind eye.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph as they relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

145. For instance, in 2001, Chicago Police Officer Joseph Miedzianowski was convicted on federal crime charges, including racketeering and drug conspiracy. The jury found that Miedzianowski engaged in corruption for much of his 22-year police career, using street informants to shake down drug dealers and sell drugs.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

146. Miedzianowski, like Defendant Officers in this case, had accumulated scores of complaints over the years. As the Appellate Court has stated, the Defendant City “did nothing to slow down the criminals. Instead, it informed the corrupt officers about the complaint and named the source.” The Defendant City deemed such complaints unfounded or not sustained.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

147. Likewise, in 2011, Chicago police officer Jerome Finnigan was convicted and sentenced on federal criminal charges, including a charge of attempting to hire someone to kill a police officer who Finnigan believed would be a witness against him on his own corruption charges in state court.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

148. Finnigan was part of a group of officers in Defendant City’s Special Operations Section that carried out robberies, home invasions, unlawful searches and seizures, and other crimes.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

149. Finnigan and his crew engaged in their misconduct at about the same time that Mr. Bradley was targeted by Defendant Watts and his crew.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

150. Finnigan, like Defendant Officers in this case, had accumulated scores of citizen complaints over the years, which Defendant City routinely deemed unfounded or not sustained.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

151. At his sentencing hearing in 2011, Finnigan stated, “You know, my bosses knew what I was doing out there, and it went on and on. And this wasn’t the exception to the rule. This was the rule.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

152. In the case of Klipfel v. Bentsen, No. 94-cv-6415 (N.D. Ill), a federal jury found that, as of 1994, the CPD maintained a code of silence that facilitated misconduct committed by Miedzianowski.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

153. Likewise, in the case of Obrycka v. City of Chicago et al., No. 07 CV 2372 (N.D. Ill.), a jury found that, as of February 2007, “the City [of Chicago] had a widespread custom and/or practice of failing to investigate and/or discipline its officers and/or code of silence.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

154. The same code of silence in place at the CPD during the time periods at issue in the Klipfel case and in the Obrycka case was also in place during the times complained of herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

155. Indeed, the problems found to exist by the jury in Klipfel and Obrycka continue to this day. In December 2015, then Mayor Rahm Emanuel acknowledged that a “code of silence” exists within the Chicago Police Department that encourages cover-ups of police misconduct, and that the City’s attempts to deal with police abuse and corruption have never been adequate.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

156. Even more recently, in January 2020, the then interim head of the Chicago Police Department, Charlie Beck, also acknowledged the code of silence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

157. Before she was elected Mayor of the City of Chicago, then-Police Board Chair, Lori Lightfoot made clear that “[a]ny of those officers [on Watts team] who remain on the job must be quickly brought to justice through criminal prosecution and/or disciplinary action.”

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

158. However, as of the filing of this complaint, the Lightfoot administration has not taken any action against the officers implicated in the Watts scandal during Mayor Lightfoot’s time as Mayor.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

159. The policies, practices, and customs set forth above were the moving force behind the constitutional violations in this case and directly and proximately caused Plaintiff to suffer the grievous injuries and damages set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph that relate to him. Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this paragraph.

160. Defendant City’s investigation of complaints is characterized by unreasonably long delays, despite the relatively straightforward nature of many misconduct claims.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

161. Although Defendant City has long been aware that its supervision, training, and discipline of police officers is entirely inadequate, Defendant City has not enacted any substantive measures to address that deficiency.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

162. Instead, Defendant City continues to inadequately investigate citizen complaints and fail to take action against officers when necessary. It has also failed to modify its officer training programs to reduce misconduct against Chicago residents or to implement a system to identify and track repeat offenders, districts, or units.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

163. Plaintiff's injuries were caused by CPD officers, agents, and employees of Defendant City of Chicago, including, but not limited to, the individually named Defendants, who acted pursuant to the policies, practices, and customs set forth above in engaging in the misconduct described in this Count.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

164. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

165. In the manner described more fully above, Defendants, while acting as investigators, individually, jointly, and in conspiracy with each other, accused Plaintiff of criminal activity and exerted influence to initiate, continue, and perpetuate judicial proceedings against Plaintiff without any probable cause for doing so and in spite of the fact that they knew Plaintiff was innocent.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

166. In doing so, Defendants caused Plaintiff to be unreasonably seized without probable cause and deprived of his liberty, in violation of Plaintiff's rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

167. The false judicial proceedings against Plaintiff were instituted and continued maliciously, resulting in injury.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

168. Defendants deprived Plaintiff of fair state criminal proceedings, including the chance to defend himself during those proceedings, resulting in a deprivation of his liberty.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

169. In addition, Defendants subjected Plaintiff to arbitrary governmental action that shocks the conscience in that Plaintiff was deliberately and intentionally framed for a crime of which he was totally innocent. This was accomplished through Defendants' fabrication and suppression of evidence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

170. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with reckless and deliberate indifference to the rights of others, and with total disregard of the truth and of Plaintiff's clear innocence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

171. The Defendants' actions were taken under color of law and within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

172. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

173. Defendants' misconduct described in this Count was undertaken pursuant to the policies, practices, and customs of Defendant City of Chicago, and by Defendants who were final policymakers for Defendant City of Chicago, in the manner described more fully above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

174. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

175. In the manner described more fully above, during the constitutional violations described herein, Defendants stood by without intervening to prevent the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights, even though they had the opportunity to do so.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

176. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with reckless and deliberate indifference to the rights of others, and with total disregard of the truth and of Plaintiff's innocence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

177. The Defendants' actions were taken under color of law and within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

178. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

179. Defendants' misconduct described in this Count was undertaken pursuant to the policies, practices, and customs of Defendant City of Chicago and by Defendants who were final policymakers for Defendant City of Chicago, in the manner described more fully above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

180. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

181. Prior to Plaintiff's convictions, all of the Defendant Officers, acting in concert with other co-conspirators, known and unknown, reached an agreement among themselves to frame Plaintiff for crimes he did not commit and thereby to deprive him of his constitutional rights, all as described above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

182. In so doing, these co-conspirators conspired to accomplish an unlawful purpose by an unlawful means. In addition, these co-conspirators agreed among themselves to protect one another from liability by depriving Plaintiff of his rights.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

183. In furtherance of their conspiracy, each of these co-conspirators committed overt acts and were otherwise willful participants in joint activity.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

184. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with reckless and deliberate indifference to the rights of others, and with total disregard of the truth and of Plaintiff's innocence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

185. The Defendants' actions were taken under color of law and within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

186. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

187. Defendants' misconduct described in this Count was undertaken pursuant to the policies, practices, and customs of Defendant City of Chicago and by Defendants who were final policymakers for Defendant City of Chicago, in the manner described more fully above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

188. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

189. In the manner described more fully above, Defendants accused Plaintiff of criminal activity and exerted influence to initiate, continue, and perpetuate judicial proceedings against Plaintiff without any probable cause for doing so.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

190. In so doing, these Defendants caused Plaintiff to be subjected improperly to judicial proceedings for which there was no probable cause. These judicial proceedings were instituted and continued maliciously, resulting in injury.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

191. The Defendants' actions were taken under color of law and within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

192. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

193. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

194. The actions, omissions, and conduct of Defendant Officers, as set forth above, were extreme and outrageous. These actions were rooted in an abuse of power and authority and were undertaken with the intent to cause, or were in reckless disregard of the probability that their conduct would cause, severe emotional distress to Plaintiff, as is more fully alleged above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

195. The Defendants' actions were taken under color of law and within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

196. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

197. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

198. As described more fully in the preceding paragraphs, Defendants, acting in concert with other co-conspirators, known and unknown, reached an agreement among themselves to frame Plaintiff for crimes he did not commit and conspired by concerted action to accomplish an unlawful purpose by an unlawful means. In addition, these co-conspirators agreed among themselves to protect one another from liability for depriving Plaintiff of his rights.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

199. In furtherance of their conspiracy, each of these co-conspirators committed overt acts and were otherwise willful participants in joint activity.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

200. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with reckless and deliberate indifference to the rights of others, and with total disregard of the truth and of Plaintiff's innocence.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

201. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

202. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

203. While committing the acts alleged in the preceding paragraphs, Defendant Officers were employees, members, and agents of the City of Chicago, acting at all relevant times within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

204. Defendant City of Chicago is liable as principal for all torts committed by their agents.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that the City of Chicago has certain statutory and common law obligations in connection with the conduct of its employees or agents. Ronald Watts denies that Plaintiff has accurately stated them here.

205. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts adopts and restates his answers and responses to each paragraph of the Complaint as and for his answer and response to this paragraph as if fully stated herein.

206. Illinois law provides that public entities are directed to pay any tort judgment for compensatory damages for which employees are liable within the scope of their employment.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts admits that the City of Chicago has certain statutory and common law obligations in connection with the conduct of its employees or agent, including under Illinois law. Ronald Watts denies that Plaintiff has accurately stated them here.

207. Defendant Officers were employees, members, and agents of the City of Chicago, acting at all relevant times within the scope of their employment in committing the misconduct described herein.

ANSWER: Ronald Watts denies the allegations in this paragraph.

Defendant denies that Plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought, or to any relief whatsoever. Defendant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an order striking and dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint, or for any other relief that this Honorable Court finds equitable and just.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendant's investigation of the facts alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint is ongoing, and, accordingly, Defendant reserves the right to assert additional affirmative defenses in the future. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Defendant states the following affirmative and other defenses:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE (Qualified Immunity)

Defendant Watts is a government official, namely a police officer, who performed discretionary functions. At all times material to the events alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint, a reasonable police officer objectively viewing the facts and circumstances that confronted defendants could have believed their actions to be lawful, in light of clearly established law and information that Defendant Watts possessed. Therefore, Defendant Watts is entitled to qualified immunity as to the Plaintiff's claims.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE (Failure to Mitigate)

Plaintiff had a duty to mitigate his damages, and any damages awarded to Plaintiff would be required to be reduced by any amount by which the damages could have been lessened by Plaintiff's failure to take reasonable action to minimize those damages.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Some or all of Plaintiff's claims in the Complaint are barred by the applicable statutes of limitations.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent any injuries or damages claimed by Plaintiff were proximately caused, in whole or in part, by negligent, willful, wanton and/or other wrongful conduct on his part, any verdict or judgment obtained by Plaintiff must be reduced by an amount commensurate with the degree of fault attributed to him.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims in his complaint are barred by the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, and judicial estoppel.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendant Watts is entitled to absolute immunity for any and all testimony provided during the underlying criminal court proceedings. Briscoe v. Lahue, 460 U.S. 325 (1983), see also, Stinson v. Gauger, 868 F.3d 516, 528 (7th Cir. 2015).

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendant Watts is immune from Plaintiff's state law claims under 745 ILCS 10/2-201 of Illinois Tort Immunity Act. Under 10/2-201 of the Tort Immunity Act, "a public employee serving in a position involving the determination of policy or the exercise of discretion is not liable for an injury resulting from his act or omission in determining policy when acting in the exercise of such discretion even though abused."

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Under 745 ILCS 10/2-202 of the Tort Immunity Act, "A public employee is not liable for his act or omission in the execution or enforcement of any law unless such act or omission constitutes willful and wanton conduct."

Defendant Watts was a public employee executing and enforcing the law at all relevant times and did not act “willfully and wantonly while doing so. Plaintiff’s state law claims against Defendant Watts are therefore barred under 745 ILCS 10/2-202.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Under 745 ILCS 10/2-204 of the Tort Immunity Act, “Except as otherwise provided by statute, a public employee, as such and acting within the scope of his employment, is not liable for an injury caused by the act or omission of another person.”

Plaintiff’s state law claims against Defendant Watts that are based on evidence of acts or omissions of other persons are barred under 745 ILCS 10/2-204.

JURY DEMAND

Defendants demand a trial by jury.

Respectfully submitted,

RONALD WATTS
Individual Defendant
