RE: Dale et al. v. Deutsche Telekom AG, T-Mobile US, Inc., and Softbank Group Corp., Case No. 1:22-cv-03189 (N.D. Ill.)

Counsel:

I write concerning the subpoena we served on DISH Network Corporation (“DISH”) last year in this matter. As explained below, discovery has commenced and Plaintiffs may now seek production of documents pursuant to the subpoena.

To re-cap, on October 19, 2022 we served a subpoena to provide DISH with notice of specific categories of information it should preserve for potential discovery in this matter. We also attached a letter clarifying that DISH was not obligated to object to or produce discovery at that time. Instead, the subpoena set a response date of 30 days after receiving notice that the Rule 26(f) conference in the above-captioned matter was completed.

On November 2, 2023, the Court denied T-Mobile’s motion to dismiss. On November 10, 2023, Plaintiffs conferred with T-Mobile as required by Rule 26(f) and this letter gives notice of the same. This makes DISH’s response to the subpoena due 30 days from today, or Tuesday, December 19, 2023 (accounting for the weekend). Of course, as we stated in our prior letter, we are open to discussing an extension for compliance, and we hope to work out enforcement of the subpoena without motion practice. I look forward to discussing the matter with you at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

Brendan P. Glackin
