2. Officers Patrick Boyle, Jennifer Burmistrz, Matthew Evans, John Foertsch, Michael Higgins, Gerald Lau, Jeffrey Lawson, Efrain Carreno and Edward Garcia are individuals who at all relevant times were police officers employed by the City of Chicago. (Ex. 2, Defs.' Answer ¶¶ 3-5.)

JURISDICTION & VENUE

3. This court has original jurisdiction over plaintiff's federal claims (see 28 U.S.C. §§ 1131, 1343), and supplemental jurisdiction over his state law indemnification claim (see 28 U.S.C. § 1367). (Ex. 2, Defs.' Answer ¶ 1.)

4. Venue in this judicial district is proper because all defendants reside in the Northern District of Illinois and the events giving rise to this action occurred in Cook County, Illinois. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391. (Ex. 2, Defs.' Answer ¶ 3.)

FACTS

5. On November 6, 2017, at approximately 10:00pm or 11:00pm, the plaintiff and James McIntyre were in the plaintiff's vehicle parked outside of his grandmother's house at 309 East 120th Place, Chicago, Illinois. (Ex. 3, Pl.'s Dep. 24:14-20; 25:13-24; 26:1.)

6. James McIntyre had just showed up at the above-mentioned location without previously communicating with plaintiff. (Ex 3, Pl.'s Dep. 31:17-19.)

7. The vehicle plaintiff was driving was parked on 120th Place, facing east. (Ex. 3, Pl.'s Dep. 35:3-22).

8. Plaintiff was seated in the driver's seat and McIntyre was seated in the front passenger seat. (Ex 3, Pl.'s Dep. 36:12-21).

9. McIntyre was dropped off by his girlfriend before entering plaintiff's vehicle. (Ex. 3, Pl.'s Dep. 32:8-10; 36:16-21.)

10. Plaintiff and McIntyre were in the vehicle together for 15 minutes. (Ex. 3, Pl.'s Dep. 40:8-11.)

11. Before McIntyre entered the vehicle, plaintiff was sitting in his vehicle on 120th Place for approximately 20 to 30 minutes. (Ex. 3, Pl.'s Dep. 39:20-24; 40:1-4.)

12. Meanwhile, Chicago police officers Carreno and Garcia arrived at work and informed their sergeant, Sgt. Boyle, at the start of their shift on November 6, 2017, that they were going to conduct a narcotics investigation near 300 block of East 120th Place, Chicago, Illinois. (Ex. 5, Boyle's Dep. 6:4-9, 9:16-25; 13:1-4.)

13. Officers Jennifer Burmistrz, Matthew Evans, John Foertsch, Michael Higgins, Gerald Lau, and Jeffrey Lawson were on the same team as Officers Carreno and Garcia and agreed to assist in the investigation. (Ex. 5, Boyle's Dep. 7:2-6; Ex. 6, Burmistrz Dep. 8:1-7; Ex. 7, Evans' Dep. 9:9-14; Ex. 8, Lau's Dep. 8:14-16; Ex. 9, Foertsch's Dep. 8:8-12; Ex. 12, Lawson's Dep 8:6-19; 10:4-12.)

14. It was typical for two officers to lead a narcotics investigation as described to Sgt. Boyle. (Ex. 5, Boyle's Dep.10:8-11.)

15. Sgt. Boyle did not plan the surveillance operation conducted by Officers Carreno and Garcia. (Ex. 5, Boyle's Dep.14:21-25.)

16. Officers Carreno and Garcia set up surveillance across the street from 313 East 120th Place. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 22:8-11; 25:1-5.)

17. Officers Carreno and Garcia were positioned behind a fence which had gaps for them to look through. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 25:8-11.)

18. Officers Carreno and Garcia were the only officers conducting surveillance of the area near 313 East 120th Place. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 9:15-17; 16:22-25.)

19. Officers Carreno and Garcia were the officers who made the plan for the surveillance. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 14:24-25; 15:1.)

20. Sgt. Boyle and Officers Burmistrz, Evans, Foertsch, Higgins, Lau, and Lawson, meanwhile, were working in an enforcement capacity. Enforcement officers serve as back-up for the surveillance officers and are responsible for conducting investigatory stops of individuals who are suspected of engaging in illegal activity. They act based on information given to them by the surveillance officers. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 13-21; Ex. 10, Boyle's Dep. 15:5-25.)

21. While Officers Carreno and Garcia were conducting surveillance, they did not know where the enforcement officers were located. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 25:14-18.)

22. Sgt. Boyle was a block or two north of 120th Street and east of where Officers Carreno and Garcia were conducting surveillance. (Ex. 5, Boyle's Dep. 16:14-17.)

23. Officers Carreno and Garcia were announcing over the radio what they were observing to the enforcement officers. (Ex. 5, Boyle's Dep. 18:21-24.)

24. Officer Burmistrz was not present for the surveillance being conducted by Officers Carreno and Garcia. (Ex. 6, Burmistrz's Dep. 10:8-10.)

25. Officer Burmistrz's was not present for any of the things that Officers Carreno and Garcia observed during the surveillance. (Ex. 6, Burmistrz's Dep. 10:24-25; 11:1-2.)

26. Officer Lawson was Officer Burmistrz's partner during this incident. (Ex. 12, Lawson's Dep. 10:13-14.)

27. Officer Lawson was also acting as an enforcement officer, listening to Carreno and Garcia communicate over the radio from a different location. (Ex 12, Lawson's Dep. 5-13.)

28. Officers Evans and Lau were partners on the night of November 6, 2017. (Ex. 7, Evans Dep. 13:19-25; 14:1-2.)

29. Officers Carreno and Garcia observed multiple individuals approach plaintiff and tender U.S. paper currency to him. McIntyre would then exit the vehicle and go down a gangway to the rear of plaintiff's grandmother's residence. McIntyre would then return and tender a small item to the person waiting, who would then walk away. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 28:5-15; Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 23:8-10.)

30. Officers Carreno and Garcia believed these transactions to be illegal drug transactions. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 28:1-4; Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 22:12-17.)

31. These alleged transactions were not video recorded or photographed. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 31:1-5.)

32. Officers Carreno and Garcia were observing plaintiff in this location for approximately 30 to 40 minutes. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 35:9-11.)

33. Nate Johnson was present at the surveillance location. (Ex. 11, Johnson's Dep. 21:13-17; 22:2-9.)

34. Johnson saw plaintiff and McIntyre in that area before entering his girlfriend's car and exiting the area. (Ex. 11, Johnson's Dep. 22:20-23; 57:18-25.)

35. Officer Carreno testified that he observed Johnson engage in a hand-to-hand transaction with plaintiff and McIntyre. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 106: 1-24.)

36. After seeing the hand-to-hand transaction, Officer Carreno went over the radio and asked the enforcement officers to stop Johnson. Carreno radioed a description of the vehicle Johnson was in, along with his physical description and his direction of travel. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 36:7-11; 37:14-20; Ex. 7, Evans Dep. 13:19-25; 14:5-11.)

37. Officers Evans and Lau conducted a traffic stop and arrested Nathaniel Johnson based on the surveillance of Officer Carreno. (Ex. 7, Evans Dep. 14:5-15.) Officers Foertsch and Higgins were also present and assisted in the stop. (Ex. 9, Foertsch's Dep. 12:2-6; Ex. 15, Higgins' Dep. 6:17-25; 7:1-19.)

38. After stopping the car, the officers went directly to Johnson and asked only him to get out of the vehicle. Johnson was in the back seat, and two female individuals were in the front. (Ex. 11, Johnson's Dep. 8:17-23; 67:8-12; Ex. 7 Evans' Dep. 11:4-11; Ex. 8, Lau's Dep. 13:17-25; 14:1-4; Ex. 9, Foertsch's Dep. 12:2-6; Ex. 15, Higgins' Dep. 6:17-25; 7:1-19.)

39. Officer Lau searched Johnson and found a knotted plastic bag of suspected heroin in his wallet. (Ex. 7, Evans Dep. 20:4-6; Ex. 8, Lau's Dep. 18:19-25; 19:1-7; Ex. 11, Johnson's Dep. 68:4-11.)

40. The officers did not search the two female occupants in the vehicle. (Ex. 8, Lau's Dep. 35:1-7.)

41. The officers placed Johnson in custody and allowed the vehicle with the two female individuals to leave. (Ex. 11, Johnson's Dep. 71:5-17.)

42. Officers Foertsch and Higgins' transported Nathaniel Johnson to the police station. (Ex. 9, Foertsch's Dep. 12:2-10; Ex. 15, Higgins' Dep. 6:17-25; 7:1-19.)

43. Officers Carreno and Garcia learned over the radio that narcotics were recovered from Nate Johnson; thereafter, Officer Carreno relocated behind 309 East 120th Place to observe where McIntyre was relocating after plaintiff received the currency. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 35:15-20; Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 29:10-15.)

44. Officer Carreno testified that he observed McIntyre go into a car that was parked behind the grandmother's residence on three occasions. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 40:23-25.)

45. Officer Carreno explained that he observed Mr. McIntyre open the driver's side door of the vehicle, which prompted the dome light inside the vehicle to activate. According to Officer Carreno, McIntyre would lean into the front driver's seat area, grab something, close the door, and then walk back towards the gangway to the front of the residence. (Ex 4, Carreno's Dep. 40:1-11.)

46. Officer Carreno radioed to Officer Garcia that he saw where McIntyre was going and described the vehicle parked behind the house. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 30:11-17.)

47. After observing several more transactions, Officer Garcia relocated to the rear of the residence to meet with and provide backup for Officer Carreno. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 31:2-19.)

48. Officer Garcia testified that he also observed McIntyre return to the vehicle in the rear of the residence, retrieve a plastic bag from the driver's side door area, close the door, and return to the front. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 32:10-14.)

49. Officers Carreno and Garcia radioed the enforcement team to detain plaintiff and McIntyre. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 32:15-18.)

50. Officers Evans and Lau were further instructed over the radio by Officers Carreno and Garcia to relocate and arrest plaintiff and McIntyre. (Ex. 7, Evans Dep. 22:10-16; Ex. 8, Lau's Dep. 23: 15-17.)

They observed on the driver's side seat, in plain view, two clear plastic knotted bags containing multiple smaller items, which they suspected to be narcotics. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 45:10-17; Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 34:1-6.)

57. Officer Garcia relocated to the front of the residence to tell the enforcement officers that he and Carreno had found suspect narcotics in the rear vehicle as well as to try and get keys for said vehicle. (Ex. 10, Garcia's Dep. 34: 14-22.)

58. Officer Carreno remained in the rear and eventually tried the driver door latch, which was unlocked. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 46:8-18.)

59. Officer Carreno subsequently recovered two separate clear plastic bags containing smaller plastic bags of suspect crack cocaine. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 46:12-18.)

62. Officers Carreno and Garcia testified that they identified plaintiff and McIntyre as the individuals they observed engaging in the narcotics transactions. (Ex. 4, Carreno's Dep. 48:4-14; Ex. 10: Garcia's Dep. 35:12-15.)
