Defendant Matthew Cadman, without prejudice to his denials and other statements in his Answer to the Complaint, for his affirmative defenses to the Complaint, states:

1. Defendant is entitled to qualified immunity because it was not clearly established that the alleged conduct violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights. At all relevant times, a reasonable officer objectively viewing the facts and circumstances then confronting Defendant Spaargaren, could have believes his actions regarding his encounter with Plaintiff to be lawful, in light of clearly established law and the information he possessed.

2. Defendant cannot be held liable for Plaintiff's 42 U.S.C. § 1983 claims unless he individually caused or participated in an alleged constitutional deprivation because individual liability for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 is predicated upon personal responsibility. See Wolf-Lillie v. Sonquist, 699 F.2d 864, 869 (7th Cir. 1983).

3. Defendant is absolutely immune for any testimony he may have given in plaintiff's underlying criminal case. See Briscoe v. LaHue, 460 U.S. 325 (1983); Jurgensen v. Haslinger, 295 Ill. App. 3d 139, 141-42, 692 N.E.2d 347, 349-50 (3d Dist. 1998).

4. Defendant is not liable for the claims alleged under state law because a public employee is not liable for his or her acts or omissions in the execution or enforcement of any law unless such acts or omissions constitute willful and wanton conduct. 745 ILCS 10/2- 202.

5. Under the Illinois Tort Immunity Act, Defendant is not liable under state law for any injury caused by the act or omission of another person. 745 ILCS 10/2-204.

6. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutes of limitations.

7. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel.

9. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state cognizable claims for relief that are plausible on their face.

a. Plaintiff fails to state a fabricated evidence-based due process claim because the allegedly fabricated evidence was not introduced against him at trial and did not cause his conviction;

b. Even if otherwise actionable, Plaintiff's guilty plea defeats his fabricated evidence based-due process claim;

c. To the extent Plaintiff alleges a Brady-based due process claim, such claim fails because his allegations establish that no evidence subject to Brady was suppressed;

d. To the extent Plaintiff asserts Fourteenth Amendment due process claim based on any pre-trial deprivation of liberty or attempts a federal malicious prosecution claim, those claims are not actionable as a matter of law;

e. To the extent Plaintiff alleges a failure to intervene, such a claim has no basis in the Constitution, and the "Supreme Court has held many times that § 1983 supports only direct, and not vicarious, liability.” Mwangangi v. Nielsen, 48 F.4th 816, 834-35 (7th Cir. 2022) (Easterbrook, J. concurring);

f. Any derivative failure to intervene or conspiracy claims are not actionable; and

g. Plaintiff’s Fourth Amendment claim for detention without probable cause is time-barred.
