[EXTERNAL]

The following message has been submitted to staff at the WA Ethics Board.

Your contact information:

You are not required to provide your name. However, if you choose not to provide your name, we are unable to keep you updated on the progress of our investigation, or to consult with you regarding the details of your complaint.

As of July 28, 2013, under RCW 42.52.410

(3)(a) A state employee who files a complaint with the appropriate ethics board shall be afforded the protection afforded to a whistleblower under RCW 42.40.050 and 49.60.210(2), subject to the limitations of RCW 42.40.035 and 42.40.910. An agency, manager, or supervisor may not retaliate against a state employee who, after making a reasonable attempt to ascertain the correctness of the information furnished, files a complaint with the appropriate ethics board. (b) A state employee may not be denied the protections in chapter 42.40 RCW even if the ethics board denies an investigation of the complaint.

(4) If a determination is made that a reprisal or retaliatory action has been taken against the state employee, the retaliator may be subject to a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars.

Further, under RCW 42.52.420(4), the identity of a person filing a complaint under RCW 42.52.410(1) is exempt from public disclosure, as provided in RCW 42.56.240.

I'm passing along this message about the UC worker strike I received on a public health professional list server. I thought it would interest UW faculty on the AAUP list.

Subject: [spiritof1848] Supporting the UC strike today

Date: December 8, 2022 at 2:50:53 PM PST

To: Spirit of 1848 <spiritof1848@googlegroups.com> Hello

I am a postdoc at UCSF writing with an urgent ask. As you may have heard, 48000 UC workers are on strike, including all UC grad student instructors, grad student researchers, postdocs, and academic researchers. Our strike is now reaching the end of its 4th week, with graduate worker bargaining reaching a critical moment. Core demands include living wages that keep up with the skyrocketing cost of living, as well as basic supports for families and international scholars (paid parental leave, affordable childcare, paid leave to navigate burdensome visa bureaucracies, etc.).

Our strike is the largest among academic workers in US history. We are taking on the largest employer in the world's 4th largest economy, fighting for access to resources that are critical for population health and health equity. Our struggle is material and urgent: a shocking number of grad workers are sleeping in their cars because they literally cannot afford a place to live (increasing their future risk of chronic illness and premature mortality). I have met fellow grad workers on the picket lines who barely afford to eat. Meanwhile, many postdocs spend upwards of 50% of their pay on childcare; without partners, they would have been driven out of science. Whole doctoral programs are operating nearly devoid of new students (much less, students who are under-represented in our disciplines due to racism and/or family poverty), since few can imagine surviving here on what they pay us.

This is an important moment for the US labor movement and the future of public health research. Please make noise ASAP: on social media, within your professional circles, and to your elected officials (if you are in CA). Consider donating to our strike fund [link to [For a list of ways to demonstrate solidarity, please visit:](https://gcc02.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=https%3A%2F%2Fgivebutter.com%2Fuc-uaw&data=05%7C01%7Cethics%40ATG.WA.GOV%7C55042728020c412e927b08dadad2a2ff%7C2cc5baaf3b9742c9bcb8392cad34af3f%7C0%7C1%7C638062895468499024%7CUnknown%7CTWFpbGZsb3d8eyJWIjoiMC4wLjAwMDAiLCJQIjoiV2luMzliLCJBtil6lk1haWwiLCJXVCI6Mn0%3D%7C2000%7C%7C&data=ab4vWm4bd3Aly6s4sTLHfFBACbitvFdfa%2BBrbEffR4c%3D&reserved=0].
