NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Friday, September 20, 2024:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Gabriel A. Fuentes: Plaintiff's renewed (doc. #[227]) motion to compel handwriting exemplars from defendant Wojcik (doc. #[215]), on review of the Officer Defendants' response (doc. #[232]), is denied without prejudice and subject to renewal during expert discovery, as the Court exercises its discretion in managing discovery, Jones v. City of Elkhart, Ind., 737 F.3d 1107, 1115 (7th Cir. 2013), in determining that plaintiff should produce more information, before the exemplars are given, about the handwriting expert's procedures and protocols, and that production of such information is better suited for the expert discovery phase in the case. That said, the Court notes that grounds for this denial do not include arguments that Wojcik already testified to what his handwriting was or looked like, and the Court saw no real obstacle to taking the exemplars now, other than the Officer Defendants' concern about not having any disclosure concerning procedures and protocols. Mailed notice. (lxk, )
