NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Friday, April 25, 2025:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey Cole: The parties are presently engaged in discovery. Defendant, City of Chicago, has filed a Motion to Unseal Plaintiff's Expunged Records. [82]. The City has represented that it conferred with Plaintiff via email on April 11, 2025, and April 14, 2025, and Plaintiff represented that he has not withheld anything that he filed on the criminal court docket, and that he does not oppose this motion. The City, however, has represented that it is unsure if what has been produced in this matter by the plaintiff represents the entirety of Plaintiff's criminal court file, which would include matters related to the case that were filed under seal as well as those on the public docket. Thus, the City is moving forward with its effort to obtain the entirety of the file including, if any, that may have been filed under seal. While the court recognizes that the particular matter being sought i.e. anything that may have been filed under seal in the state court criminal case are not within the custody and control of a federal District Court, the matter of the proper bounds of discovery is. Accordingly, the motion [82] is granted by agreement. Mailed notice (ec)
