DEFENDANT CITY OF CHICAGO'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE RESPONSIVE PLEADING (UNOPPOSED)

Defendant, City of Chicago (“Defendant”), by its attorneys, Burns Noland LLP, for its motion for an extension of time to file a responsive pleading, to and including September 16, 2024, states:

1. Undersigned counsel have been retained to represent the City of Chicago in this matter, and have filed appearances today.
2. Defendant requests an extension of time to file its responsive pleadings. Plaintiff's complaint consists of seven separate counts and 64 paragraphs. This requested extension is not sought for purposes of delay, but is needed to allow the Defendant's counsel time to gather information and investigate the allegations in plaintiff's complaint.
3. No prejudice will be suffered by any party as a result of the requested extension.
4. The undersigned contacted plaintiff's counsel concerning this motion, who indicated the motion could be presented as unopposed.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, City of Chicago, requests an extension of time to file its responsive pleadings, to and including September 16, 2024, and for any other relief this Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY B. RICHARDSON-LOWRY
Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago
